Access:

- From I-70 take Exit 205, Silverthorne / Dillon, and travel south on HWY 6 toward Dillon.
- Approximately 1.2 miles south of I-70 turn left at the traffic light at the intersection of HWY 6 and Evergreen Road (Lord of the Mountain Church is on your left).
- After turning left, immediately turn right onto Straight Creek Road (County Road 51) and follow this road for approximately 1.7 miles to where the road ends at a gate. This is the trailhead parking area for Straight Creek.

Trail Highlights:

- Continue on the road past the gate and begin to climb along the north side of Straight Creek. The trail parallels I-70 the entire way up to the Eisenhower Tunnel.
- The trail, an old double-track road, will cross Straight Creek a few times as you climb gradually up the valley through a lodge pole pine forest.
- Straight Creek runs down from the Continental Divide at the Eisenhower Tunnel along I-70 and into the Blue River in Silverthorne. It is the main water supply for the town of Dillon.
